

Pre-Ph.D. Course in-
Ancient History, Archaeology & Culture

(8)

7

Paper I - maximum marks - 100

This paper consists of the following points -

- 1- Research methodology - formulation of a research problem, collection of research-data, interpretation, writing, preparation of Bibliography and Index.
- 2- Interdisciplinary approaches in research methodology.
- 3- Review of literary Sources -
  - (A) Vedic
  - (B) Buddhist
- 4- Study of Archaeological sources
  - (A) Major Archaeological sites
  - (B) Important monuments.
- 5- Knowledge of modern historians and their writings on different aspects of Ancient Indian History.

Paper II - maximum marks - 100

This paper will consist of the following points -

- 1- Knowledge of literary sources -
  - (A) Jain
  - (B) Classical Sanskrit literature
- 2- Survey & study of Archaeological sources -
  - (A) Sculptures.
  - (B) Important epigraphs -
  - (C) Coins

APSL

- 3- Critical appreciation of recently published books by the students.
- 4- General awareness of research methodology.
- 5- General introduction of History as a whole.

Recommended by —

Dr. Anandhya Naidu Chudabai
(M.A.)
Convener

Ancient History —
M.A.P.G. College —
Bailabgeru
U.P.