eco-friendly campus. It will facilitate rainwater harvesting, improve groundwater levels, and promote biodiversity conservation. The event was attended by the Governor's Officer on Special Duty (OSD) Ashok Desai, Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla, and other officials.

Governor of Uttar Pradesh reviews development works at Awadh University

No compromise on quality in development works; student amenities to be the top priority: Chancellor

Ayodhya, June 27, 2026: Smt. Anandiben Patel, Governor of Uttar Pradesh and Chancellor of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Awadh University, held a review meeting regarding development works on Saturday at the Kautilya Administrative Building auditorium of the university. The meeting involved a detailed review of the progress of ongoing construction projects, academic and administrative arrangements, student amenities, and infrastructure within the campus. The Chancellor stated that the university's development should be planned with the students' current needs and future requirements in mind, and emphasized that all projects must be completed within the stipulated timeframes while maintaining high quality.

She issued strict instructions against any negligence or compromise on quality in construction activities. She also emphasized prioritizing the provision of clean drinking water, uninterrupted power supply, sanitation, security, and other basic amenities in harvesting and tree plantation. She also stressed the need to further strengthen quality education, research, and innovation in alignment with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020.

Earlier, Vice-Chancellor Colonel Dr. Bijendra Singh gave a presentation on the university's ongoing development projects, apprising the Chancellor of the progress regarding academic buildings, hostels, drinking water facilities, power supply, roads, the green campus initiative, water conservation, and other infrastructure. He informed her that work is proceeding rapidly on various projects aimed at making the university campus modern, technologically advanced, and eco-friendly.

The meeting was attended by the Governor's Officer on Special Duty (OSD) Ashok Desai, Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla, Prof. S.S. Mishra, Prof. Neelam Pathak, Prof. Ashutosh Sinha, Prof. Himanshu Shekhar Singh, Prof. Shailendra Kumar Verma, Prof. Anoop Kumar, and Prof. Siddharth Shukla, along with officials from the Electricity Department, Rural Engineering Department, and executing agencies.

Governor Anandiben Patel inaugurates two Anganwadi centers and smart classrooms Anganwadi centers are a powerful medium for the development of women and children: Governor Ayodhya, June 27, 2026. Uttar Pradesh Governor Smt. Anandiben Patel inaugurated two newly constructed Anganwadi centers and a smart classroom on Saturday in the Dorahi Kuan neighborhood near the Brahmakund Gurudwara in Ayodhya Dham, under the State Smart City Mission scheme. During the event, she visited the Bal Vatikas (preschool sections), interacted with the children, and inquired about the teaching methods employed in the smart classroom. She distributed fruits and sweets to the children and inspected the kitchen to assess the quality of the mid-day meal.

Addressing the gathering, the Governor stated that India's bright future lies in the hands of today's children. Quality education, good values, and balanced nutrition during the early stages are essential for their physical, mental, and intellectual development. She remarked that a child's first tion of pregnant women, the Governor noted that a healthy society begins during pregnancy. She instructed Anganwadi workers to ensure the registration of every pregnant woman and to promote institutional deliveries. She also appealed to parents to exclusively breastfeed newborns for the first six months and to enroll every child over the age of three in an Anganwadi center.

She observed that the majority of a child's learning capacity develops by the age of eight; therefore, it is crucial to instill values related to moral education, yoga, environmental conservation, and a disciplined lifestyle during this period.

A large number of local citizens attended the event, including Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh, the District Magistrate, the District Development Officer, Ward Councilor Ranjana Yadav, senior officials from various departments, Anganwadi workers, and ASHA workers.

Governor inaugurates high-tech video conferencing auditorium at Awadh University Universities must be empowered with modern technology: Chancellor

Ayodhya, June 27, 2026: Smt. Anandiben Patel, Governor of Uttar Pradesh and Chancellor of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University, inaugurated a newly constructed, state-of-the-art video conferencing hall on the ground floor of the university's Kautilya Administrative Building on Saturday. Following the inauguration, she inspected the hall and familiarized herself with the modern technical equipment and digital communication facilities installed there. She remarked that in the current era, it is essential to integrate higher education institutions with the latest technologies to ensure quality and efficiency in teaching, research, and administrative operations.

The Chancellor stated that this high-tech hall would play a pivotal role in directly connecting the university with academicians, scientists, experts, and various institutions at both national and international levels. It will facilitate the more effective organization of online lectures, webinars, research seminars, training programs, academic dialogues, and administrative meetings. She urged the university administration to make optimal use of this facility for the benefit of students and researchers.

Welcoming the Chancellor on this occasion, Vice-Chancellor Colonel Dr. Bijendra Singh explained that the hall is equipped with a high-quality audio-video system, large digital displays, modern video conferencing equipment, and an advanced networking system. He noted that this facility represents a significant step towards transforming the university into a technology-enabled, innovation-driven, and globally competitive educational institution—in alignment with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. It will provide students, researchers, and faculty members with opportunities for direct interaction with experts from across the country and abroad.

Also present on the occasion were the Governor's Officer on Special Duty (OSD) Ashok Desai, Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla, Prof. S.S. Mishra, Prof. Shailendra Kumar, uted this success to the collective effort, dedication, and academic excellence of the university family. He stated that, in alignment with the National Education

Policy (NEP) 2020, the university is continuously promoting education, research, innovation, skill development, and industry-academia collaboration. He expressed confidence that this achievement would inspire even better performance in the future. IQAC Director Prof. Himanshu Shekhar Singh noted that under the Vice-Chancellor's leadership, the university has made significant strides in quality enhancement, research culture, and institutional development. The university's performance has been particularly commendable in disciplines such as Environmental Engineering, Environmental Management, Nutrition and Food Science, Biology, Chemistry, and Social Sciences. Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla, and the entire university community expressed their happiness over this achievement.

New dimension for historical research and academic collaboration: Awadh University signs MoU Awadh University's significant initiative to boost research activities at the national level

Ayodhya, June 07, 2026. A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed between Dr. Rammanohar

Singh, this agreement aims to promote research, training, and academic activities in the fields of history, culture, and other allied subjects. Prof. Anoop Kumar, representing the Vice-Chancellor, stated that under the MoU, both institutions will conduct joint research projects, guest lectures, and acaademic tours, as well as student and faculty exchange programs. This will enable the effective utilization of the intellectual capabilities and academic resources of both institutions. He noted that the History Research Institute, Neri, works with the objective of presenting Indian history from an Indian perspective and conducts research and publication activities in history, culture, archaeology, and other disciplines. This agreement will pave the way for new opportunities in the fields of history and research, benefiting both students and researchers.
