

Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University, Ayodhya

September, 2026

University's Monthly E-Newsletter

Year: 01 Issue: 08 Page: 08

Patron

Col. Dr. Bijendra Singh

Vice-Chancellor

Publisher

Shri Vinay Kumar Singh

Registrar

Editor

Dr. Vijayendu Chaturvedi

Department of M.C.J

Editorial Board

Dr. Raj Narayan Pandey

Dr. Anurag Singh

Shri Kshitij Dwivedi

Compilation and Editing

Lakshmi Pathak, Shreya Maurya, Shreya Sen, Anand Pandey, Kumari
Rangoli, Tusha Srivastava, Shivansh Kumar, Srishti Kaushal.

The thoughts and views of our esteemed readers are cordially invited.

Avadhuniversity@gmail.com

419 girls vaccinated against HPV at Awadh University; 55 TB patients receive nutritional kits Healthy citizens form the strong foundation of a developed India: Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh Ayodhya, September 17, 2026: A special health campaign concluded at the Primary Health Centre of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University, organized jointly by the Community Health Centre (CHC) Masaudha and the Office of the Chief Medical Officer. Held from August 3 to September 17 to mark Prime Minister Narendra Modi's 76th birthday, the campaign saw 419 girls in the 14-15 age group receive the single-shot HPV (Human Papillomavirus) vaccine. Demonstrating its commitment to social welfare, the university also distributed nutritional kits to 55 tuberculosis (TB) patients.

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh stated that the health of every citizen is essential for realizing the resolve of a 'Viksit Bharat' (Developed India) and building a prosperous society. Safeguarding the health of girls lays the foundation for a secure and empowered future for the nation. HPV vaccination is a crucial step towards preventing serious diseases. The university remains dedicated to fulfilling social responsibilities and prioritizing health alongside education. Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh, Registrar

Health workers administering the HPV vaccine to girls, and Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh, Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, and Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla distributing nutritional kits to TB patients during a health campaign organized at Awadh University.

Vinay Kumar Singh, and Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla distributed nutritional kits to the 55 TB patients identified under the Prime Minister's 'TB-Mukt Bharat Abhiyan' (TB-Free India Campaign). Dean of Student Welfare Prof. Neelam Pathak actively participated in the event.

campaign was successfully completed thanks to the significant contributions of Vaccine Nodal In-charge P.C. Bharti, Dr. Deepsha Dubey, and ANM Phoolmati. Health centre staff, faculty members, and university employees were present on the occasion.

Avadh University Illuminated with 7,600 Diyas, 'Seva Sankalp' Resonates with the Message of Nation-Building 'Aashirwad Ka Diya' Inspires Youth Consciousness; Speech Competitions to be Held on 'My Dream India'

Ayodhya, September 17, 2026: To mark the occasion of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's birthday, 7,600 earthen lamps were lit at the main campus of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University as part of the 'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan' (Service Pledge Campaign). The entire campus glowed with the light of these lamps during the 'Aashirwad ka Diya' (Lamp of Blessings) event, which conveyed messages of service, dedication, and nation-building.

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh stated that Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision is not only steering the country in a new direction but also infusing the youth with creative energy. The 'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan' symbolizes a commitment to nation-building and social responsibility. He announced that a three-tier speech competition on the theme 'India of My Dreams: The Concept of a Developed India' would be organized to foster national consciousness among the youth. The Vice-Chancellor explained that the first phase of the competition would take place at the college level. Participants

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh, Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla, teachers, and students lighting 7,600 earthen lamps as part of the 'Aashirwad ka Diya' (Lamp of Blessings) program at the main campus of Awadh University.

place at the college level. Participants securing the first, second, and third positions in this round will advance to the district-level competition. Students selectured at the district level will then participate in the main university-level competition. All participants will receive certificates, while winners will be honored with cash prizes and cita-utions. Along with faculty members, officials, and students, were present on the occasion.

He also directed affiliated colleges to ensure active participation in the 'Nashamukt Bharat Abhiyan' (Drug-Free India Campaign) to raise awareness among the youth about the harmful effects of substance abuse.

Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla, Chief Proctor Prof. S.S. Mishra, Dean of Student Welfare Prof. Neelam Pathak, Prof. Himanshu Shekhar Singh, Prof. Chayan Kumar Mishra, Prof. Shailendra Kumar Verma, Prof. Ashutosh Singh, and Dep-

'Srijan-2026' at Awadh University: A vibrant celebration of culture; talented individuals honored 'Srijan' is a powerful platform to showcase students' talent: Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Ayodhya, September 18, 2026. The three-day annual festival 'Srijan-2026', organized at the Institute of Engineering and Technology of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University, concluded with vibrant cultural performances. At the closing ceremony held in the Swami Vivekananda Auditorium, students mesmerized the audience with various folk-cultural presentations, including a theatrical performance titled 'Sita ka Swayamvar'. The performances offered a captivating glimpse into Indian culture and folk traditions.

The chief guest, Meena Singh (First Lady of the University), praised the students' performances. Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh remarked that such events serve as a vital platform for bringing out the innate talent of students, offering them an opportunity to hone their building through innovation and multifaceted abilities. Appreciating creativity.

The University's First Lady, Meena Singh, and Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh inaugurating the 'Srijan-2026' cultural program by lighting the ceremonial lamp at the Swami Vivekananda Auditorium of Awadh University.

the participants' efforts, he encouraged them to contribute to nation-building through innovation and multifaceted abilities. Appreciating creativity, self-confidence, team spirit, and leadership qualities among the students. During the closing ceremony, Chief Guest Meena Singh, the Vice-Chancellor, the Director, and Program Coordinator Dr. Vandita Pandey honored the winners and runners-up of various competitions by presenting them with awards and certificates. The event was anchored by Aditi Pandey, Ayush Singh, Shambhavi Mudra Shukla, Dr. Chandan Kumar, and Dr. Anurag Singh. Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, former Director Prof. Lakshmi Kant Singh, Prof. Raj Kumar Tiwari, and Prof. S.K. Raizada, along with faculty members, staff, and students, were present on the occasion.

Poster and Slogan Competition on Ozone Day

Ayodhya, September 16, 2026. A poster and slogan competition was organized on World Ozone Day under the joint aegis of the Department of Environmental Science at Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University and the Uttar Pradesh Pollution Control Board, Ayodhya. Describing the ozone layer as Earth's natural protective shield, Head of Department Dr. Vinod Kumar Chaudhary urged students to make environmental conservation a part of their daily lives. Prof. Siddharth Shukla also raised awareness regarding environmental responsibility. In the poster competition, Yashita

Srivastava secured first place, with Swati Sharma receiving a Mahima second, and Nishtha Barnwal third, while Ayushi Tripathi received a consolation prize. In the slogan competition, Anshika Verma won first place, Priyanka Maurya second, and Atul Kumari third, consolation prize. All winners were honored with certificates and prizes. Faculty members, including Ajay Singh, and a large number of students were present on the occasion.

Portrait of Sant Kanwarram Sahib Dedicated to the Sindhi Study Centre

Ayodhya, September 11, 2026.

The M.A. Sindhi examinations are being conducted peacefully at the residential campus of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University, with students from various states participating. A special event was held at the Amar Shaheed Sant Kanwarram Sahib Sindhi Study Centre to mark the occasion. Ramesh Lal Bhambhani, a student from the 2023-24 batch, presented a self-made portrait of Sant Kanwarram Sahib to the Centre. Honorary Director Prof. Anoop Kumar honored Amrita Panjwani, a student who had qualified for the UGC-NET, with a trophy. Teachers, research scholars, and distinguished guests were present at the event.

Awadh University comes alive to Rajasthani folk melodies; Bhungar Khan captivates the audience

Ayodhya, September 15, 2026. A grand cultural program was organized at the Swami Vivekananda Auditorium of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University under the joint aegis of the SPIC MACAY Ayodhya Chapter. Re-

Rajasthan. Students enthusiastically cheered for the artists with thunderous applause during the renditions of folk songs—including 'Kesariya Balam'—and bhajans. Dean of Student Welfare Prof. Neelam Pathak nowned folk artist Ustad Bhungar Khan Manganiyar and his troupe from Rajasthan mesmerized the audience with their captivating performances of Rajasthani folk music. Accompanied by the beats of traditional instruments and the Kalbelia dance, the artists brought to life the desert life, love, longing, and exuberance of remarked that folk arts are the soul of our rich cultural heritage and that it is essential to connect the youth with them. The program was conducted by students Agrima Mishra and Madhurima Singh. At the conclusion of the event, Ustad Bhungar Khan and his fellow artists were honored with bouquets and traditional stoles.

Prioritize innovation and creative thinking in engineering: Vice-Chancellor Three-day 'Srijan-2026' kicks off at IET; focus on AI and robotics Ayodhya, September 15, 2026: The grand inauguration of the three-day event 'Srijan-2026' took place on Engineers' Day at the Institute of Engineering and Technology (IET), Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University. Scheduled from September 15 to 17, the event was inaugurated by Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh, who paid floral tributes to Goddess Saraswati and the legendary engineer Bharat Ratna Sir M. Visvesvaraya and lit the ceremonial lamp. The Vice-Chancellor stated that students and every engineer should draw inspiration from the life and work of Sir M. Visvesvaraya. He emphasized that the purpose of engineering should not be limited to technology alone but should be linked to public welfare and service to humanity. He urged students to move forward with discipline, positive thinking, and various sectors, including agriculture, medi-

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh and guests Prof. LK Singh and Prof. RK Tiwari addressing students at the launch of 'Srijan-2026' at IET.

dedication towards their goals. He noted that the current century is defined by the widespread use of Artificial Intelligence (AI), which is bringing about significant changes across cine, education, defense, and sports. In this context, future engineers must cultivate innovation and creative thinking alongside technical proficiency.

The Institute's Director, Prof. Himanshu Shekhar Singh, welcomed the guests—Prof. Lakshmi Kant Singh and Prof. Rajkumar Tiwari—by presenting them with traditional stoles (angavastram) and mementos. Prof. Lakshmi Kant Singh highlighted positivity, dedication, and attitude as the foundations of success, while Prof. Rajkumar Tiwari emphasized consistency and productivity. Event Convener Dr. Vandita Pandey announced that the festival would feature a model exhibition, technical and cultural competitions, and the worship of Lord Vishwakarma. Shambhavi Shukla conducted the proceedings, and Dr. Chandan proposed the vote of thanks. A large number of faculty members and participants were present on the occasion.

The significant role of Hindi in the integration of Indian languages

Ayodhya, September 15, 2026. A speech competition was organized on Tuesday to mark Hindi the Department of Awadhi at Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University. The central theme of the Diwas, under the joint aegis of the Department of Hindi Language and Functional Hindi and event was "The Role of Hindi in the Harmonization of Indian Languages." Students participated enthusiastically, presenting their views on the diversity of Indian languages, their interrelationships, and Hindi's contribution to inter-linguistic dialogue. Participants were evaluated based on content, presentation, logical reasoning, and expressive skills. The panel of judges comprised Dr. Suman Lal, Dr. Pratyasha Mishra, Dr. Pratibha Singh, and Dr. Naveen. The program was coordinated by Prof. Surendra Mishra, while Dr. Shivansh, Dr. Pratibha Devi, and Dr. Shyam encouraged the students.

46 rare historical coins collected at university Koshal Museum

Ayodhya, September 18, 2026. comprises 35 coins from the Forty-six rare historical coins 19th and 20th centuries, a have been collected under the survey and acquisition campaign conducted by the Koshal Museum of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University. Six ancient and medieval coins were recovered during a survey in Ramnathpur village, Sultanpur, led by the museum's coordinator, Dr. Rajesh Singh. These include one ancient and five medieval coins made of silver and copper. Additionally, the collection

'Sitaram' religious token, and two Nepalese coins. Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh stated that coins serve as authentic evidence for reconstructing history and determining chronologies. He issued instructions to establish a 'Numismatic Gallery' (Mudra Veethika) at the museum soon.

Reliability and punctuality build customer trust: Prof. Dahiya

Ayodhya, September 21, 2026. A special lecture on the topic har Lohia Avadh University. The keynote speaker, Prof. Ashish

"Customer Satisfaction and Challenges in the Hospitality Industry" was organized at the Department of Business Management and Entrepreneurship, Dr. Rammano-

Dahiya from Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak, discussed the evolving nature of the hospitality industry, service standards, and contemporary challenges. He emphasized that reliability and punctuality are essential for winning customer trust. Prof. Shailendra Kumar Verma, Head of the Department, highlighted the growing employment opportunities in the hospitality and tourism sectors. Prof. Himanshu Shekhar Singh, Director of IQAC, honored Prof. Dahiya by presenting him with a traditional stole (angavastra) and a memento. Faculty members, research scholars, and students—including Dr. Mahendra Pal Singh, Dr. Anshuman Pathak, Dr. Rakesh Kumar, and Yogesh Dixit—were present at the event.

Last date for admission at Awadh University extended to September 10

Ayodhya, September 2, 2026. In the interest of students, the deadline for admission to undergraduate and postgraduate courses at the Awadh University residential campus and its affiliated colleges has been extended to September 10, 2026. Vinay Kumar Singh, Registrar of Awadh University, stated that this decision was taken following the directives and approval of the Vice-Chancellor. Interested candidates can complete the admission process by the specified date. Detailed information is available on the university's official website.

Awadh University contingent leaves for Lucknow to participate in the lighting of one lakh lamps Vice-Chancellor flags off the team comprising over 100 students and teachers

Ayodhya, September 16, 2026. Dr. Bijendra Singh, Vice-Chancellor of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Awadh University, flagged off a bus carrying a contingent of over 100 students and faculty members from the university campus to Lucknow. This group will participate in the historic Deepotsav (festival of lights) event scheduled for September 17 at the Rashtra Prema Sthal (National Inspiration Site) in the Basantkunj Scheme area, Lucknow. Organized by the Lucknow Development Authority and the district administration, the event aims to light over one lakh (100,000) earthen lamps in the distinguished presence of Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath. The objective of the program is to disseminate information about the public welfare achievements of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's 25-year tenure of continuous service to the masses and to align citizens with the collective national resolve of a 'Viksit Bharat-2047' (Developed India 2047). The university's participation has been ensured at the request of the Lucknow administration. Prof. Surendra Mishra has been appointed as the nodal officer for the successful execution of the event.

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh stated that the lighting of one lakh lamps symbolizes the collective resolve for nation-building and the goal of a developed India. The university contingent will actively participate in this historic occasion. Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh,

Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla, Dean of Student Mishra, along with other faculty members, officials, Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh flagging off a group of students and teachers from the university campus to participate in the Deepotsav held in Lucknow.

Welfare Prof. Neelam Pathak, and Prof. Surendra and staff, were present on the occasion.

Sundarkand recitation held with reverence at IET, Awadh University; Lord Vishwakarma worshipped with traditional rituals Ayodhya, September 17, 2026: Lord Vishwakarma was worshipped with due rituals, accompanied by the recitation of the Sundarkand, at the Institute of Engineering and Technology (IET) of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Awadh University on Thursday. Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh served as the chief host for the event, which was organized under the banner of 'Srijan-2026'. Amidst the chanting of Vedic mantras, prayers were offered to Lord Vishwakarma, seeking the institute's progress and a bright future for the students. Faculty members, staff, and a large number of students participated in the Sundarkand recitation with great devotion. During the worship ceremony, Lord Vishwakarma was hailed as the symbol of creation, construction, and technical skill, and students were encouraged to draw Raj Kumar Tiwari, and Prof. S.K. Rai-

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh and other faculty members performing the ritualistic worship of Lord Vishwakarma at IET following the recitation of the Sundarkand.

inspiration from his professional excellence and creativity. Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, former Director Prof. Lakshmi Kant Singh, Prof.

zada, along with other faculty members, staff, and students, were present on the occasion.

Poetic verses resonated during Hindi Week; students shared their thoughts

Ayodhya, September 19, 2026. A poetry Week' under the joint aegis of the Depart-recitation competition and a discussion session were organized as part of 'Hindi ment of Hindi Language and Functional Hindi and the Department of Awadhi at

Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Awadh University. Students participated enthusiastically in the poetry recitation, presenting evocative compositions. The panel of judges comprised Dr. Suman Lal, Dr. Pratibha Tripathi, and Dr. Pratibha Singh. During the discussion session, students expressed their views on contemporary and literary topics, with Dr. Shyam Bahadur and Dr. Shivansh serving as judges. Dr. Sarita Pathak encouraged the students, and the event was coordinated by Surendra Mishra. A large number of students participated in the event.

Suicide prevention is possible through open dialogue and timely help

Ayodhya, September 19, 2026. A workshop was organized at the Department of Entrepreneurship and Management, Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Awadh University, as part of the 'Educational Institution Suicide Awareness Series.' Dr. Alok Mandarshan was the keynote speaker at the session held under the guidance of Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh. He stated that career concerns, academic pressure, and relationship issues are the primary reasons behind suicides among the youth. Open dialogue within families, educational institutions, and society acts as 'first aid' during times of crisis. He highlighted a positive outlook, proper psychological counseling, and necessary medical assistance as effective measures for suicide prevention.

The program was coordinated by the Head of the Department, Prof. Shailendra Verma, and conducted by Dr. Ashutosh Pandey. A large number of faculty members and students, including Dr. Nimish Mishra, Dr. Anshuman Pathak, and Dr. Deepa Singh, were present on the occasion.

World Pharmacist Day Celebrated with Fervor at Awadh University; Students Honoured Pharmacists Should Fulfill Their Responsibilities Towards Society by Acting as Vigilant Guardians of Healthcare Services: Vice-Chancellor

Ayodhya, September 26, 2026. World Pharmacist Day was celebrated on Friday at the Swami Vivekananda Auditorium within the Institute of Pharmacy at Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Awadh University. The theme for this year was 'Empowering Pharmacists for a Healthy Future.' The event commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp and a prayer dedicated to Goddess Saraswati. The Institute's Director, Prof. Shailendra Kumar, welcomed the guests by presenting them with a Tulsi plant and a memento.

In his presidential address, Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh stated that pharmacy is not merely limited to the dispensing of medicines but serves as a cornerstone for safeguarding human life and ensuring better healthcare. Pharmacists should raise societal awareness service, ethical values, and social respon-

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh addressing students at the World Pharmacist Day celebration at Awadh University, with guests seated on the dais.

regarding the monitoring of drug interactions, the correct administration of medicines, and the eradication of substance abuse. Students must embrace a spirit of sibility while engaging with modern drug dispensing systems and research.

The Guest of Honour, Dr. Dinesh Singh Martolia—Principal of Rajarshi

Dasharath Autonomous State Medical College—highlighted the evolving role of pharmacists in clinical pharmacy, drug safety, monitoring adverse effects, and patient counseling. The Dean of Student Welfare inspired the students to work with human values and a spirit of service.

Various competitions, including Rangoli and debates, were organized on this occasion. Students who performed exceptionally well were awarded certificates of merit and prizes. The event was conducted by Ankita Tripathi and Om Tripathi, while Dr. Vimal Yadav proposed the vote of thanks. Faculty members, including Dr. Ankur Srivastava, Poonam Singh, Jyoti Vaishya, Dr. Anil Kumar, and Dr. Sindhu Singh, were present at the event.

Officials took stock of the preparations for Deepotsav

Ayodhya, September 28, 2026. Officials conducted on-site inspections of various venues to review preparations for the proposed Deepotsav-2026, organized jointly by Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Awadh University and the district administration. The District Magistrate, Chief Development Officer, Municipal Commissioner, Additional District Magistrate (City), and Nodal Officer Prof. S.S. Mishra inspected Ram Ki Paidi, the extended Ram Ki Paidi, Chaudhary Charan Singh Ghat, and the Bhajan Sandhya venue. After identifying shortcomings, instructions were issued to the concerned the earthen lamps across 55

District Magistrate, Chief Development Officer, Municipal Commissioner, and Nodal Officer Prof. S.S. Mishra conducting a site inspection of Ram Ki Paidi as part of preparations for Deepotsav-2026.

departments to rectify arrangements within the stipulated time-frame. Prof. Mishra stated that 35,000 volunteers would arrange major ghats; the arrangement of lamps will begin on November 3, and the lighting ceremony will take place on November 7.

Awadh University's exam pattern to be revised to align with competitive examinations

Ayodhya, September 29, 2026. An initiative has been launched at Awadh University to modernize the examination system and align it with the standards of competitive examinations. A review meeting involving all subject coordinators was held in the Kautilya Administrative Building auditorium, presided over by Vice-Chancellor Dr.

standard question bank comprising one thousand multiple-choice questions will be prepared for each subject. Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh announced that the new examination system would be implemented in a time-bound manner.

Faculty members present at the meeting included Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla, Prof.

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh presiding over a review meeting with subject coordinators regarding the examination pattern at the Kautilya Administrative Building.

Bijendra Singh. The coordinators presented the question paper formats for their respective subjects.

The Vice-Chancellor stated that qualitative changes in the examination system would foster the development of students' analytical and logical capabilities. A Mridula Mishra, Prof. S.S. Mishra, Prof. S.K. Raizada, Prof. Himanshu Shekhar Singh, Prof. Shailendra Kumar Verma, Prof. Shailendra Kumar, Prof. Anoop Kumar, Prof. Farrukh Jamal, Prof. Sangram Singh, Prof. Ajay Kumar Singh, and Prof. Meenu Dubey.

Students shared their views on the concept of a 'Viksit Bharat'

Ayodhya, September 29, 2026. An inter-departmental speech competition on the theme 'The Vision of a Developed India' (Viksit Bharat) was organized at the Department of Business Management and Entrepreneurship, Awadh University. MBA students presented their views on the roadmap to transform India into a developed nation by the year 2047. Participants shared their thoughts on economic growth, technological innovation, sustainable development, and the role of youth power in an 'Atmanirbhar Bharat' (Self-Reliant India). Held under the leadership of Dr. Ashutosh Kumar Pandey, the competition saw Dr. Anshuman Pathak and Dr. Rakesh Kumar guiding the students. The panel of judges comprised Dr. Deepa Singh, Dr. Mahendra Pal Singh, and Dr. Ankita Yadav. Pratiksha Pandey secured the first position, followed by Shubhi Pandey (second), Ayush Kumar (third), and Sanjit Singh (fourth). The winners were honored with mementos.

The elderly are society's invaluable treasure; serving them is our responsibility: Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh Vice-Chancellor distributed daily-use items to 135 elderly residents at an old-age home Ayodhya, September 3, 2026. Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University organized a service and public welfare program at the old age home located at Maniparvat. During the event, Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh distributed essential daily-use items to 135 elderly residents. He also interacted with them and inquired about their well-being. University officials, faculty members, and students from the Department of Social Work participated in the program.

The Vice-Chancellor stated that the elderly are an invaluable asset to society; their experiences and life values serve as a source of inspiration for the new generation. It is the responsibility of every individual in society to uphold the respect, care, time with the elderly and assisting

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh distributing daily-use items to 135 elderly residents at the old age home located at Maniparvat.

and dignity of the elderly. Spending with their needs reflects social sensitivity. Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla remarked that, alongside academic activities, the university is also fulfilling its responsibilities towards social causes. Such service and welfare programs play a crucial role in fostering human empathy, a spirit of service, and social responsibility among students.

Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh stated that serving the elderly is the true embodiment of social empathy. The university remains committed to social obligations alongside education. Dr. Dinesh Kumar Singh, Dr. Prabhat Singh, and Ambarish Mishra (manager of the old age home), along with students from the Department of Social Work, were present at the event.

New record to be set at Deepotsav through technology and teamwork: Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh Online database of 34,000 volunteers to be prepared; participation of young children barred Ayodhya, September 11, 2026. A meeting regarding preparations for Deepotsav-2026 was held in the auditorium located on the ground floor of the Kautilya Administrative Building at Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University. Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh presided over the meeting. He stated that organizing Deepotsav on the sacred land of Lord Ram is an opportunity for meritorious service. He emphasized that a new record would be set this time through teamwork, the effective use of technology, and time-bound planning. He directed that an online database of over 34,000 volunteers be prepared within the stipulated timeframe.

The Vice-Chancellor instructed that the ghats be divided into sectors and that adequate arrangements be ensured for drinking water, sanitation, dustbins, and safe movement. For security reasons, young children will not be included as volunteers. Nodal Officer Prof. S.S. Mishra provided details regarding the preparations. The meeting was attended by Prof. Danpati Tiwari, Principal of Saket College, along with principals and representatives from Rajkaran Vedic Pathshala Inter College, Sahabdeen Sita-

ram Inter College, Manohar Lal Inter Grammar International School, MR

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh presiding over a meeting with principals and representatives of educational institutions regarding preparations for Deepotsav-2026.

College, Arya Kanya Inter College, Jaipuria School, BS Girls' Degree College, Government Girls' Inter College, Shiv lege, and Bhagwan Asha Bakhsh Singh Savitri College, Canossa Inter College, College.

Goal setting paves the way for success: Dharendra Singh Awadh University receives 'Excellence in Multi-disciplinary Higher Education' award

Ayodhya, September 12, 2026. An 'Induction Program-2026' was organized for newly admitted students at the Department of Business Management and Entrepreneurship, Awadh University. Keynote speaker and Airport Director Dharendra Singh encouraged the students to set clear, written goals. Guest speaker Devashekhar Vishnu Das explained the significance of leadership, discipline, and consciousness through the 'LMNOP' formula. Prof. Shailendra Kumar Verma delivered the welcome address. The event concluded with cultural performances. Dr. Ni-

mish Mishra conducted the proceedings, and Dr. Rana Rohit Singh proposed the vote of thanks.

Ayodhya, September 25, 2026: Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh attributed this achievement to the collective efforts of the faculty, researchers, staff, and students. Awadh University was honored with the 'Excellence in Multi-disciplinary Higher Education' award at the 'Times Now Education Summit-2026' held at the Taj Palace, New Delhi. IQAC Director Prof. Himanshu Shekhar Singh and Dr. P.K. Dwivedi received the award in the presence of Union Minister Dr. Mansukh Mandaviya and other dignitaries. Vice-

Deendayal-ji's economic thought is human-centric and oriented towards public welfare: Vice-Chancellor Special lecture on economic thought marking the 110th birth anniversary of Pt. Deendayal Upadhyaya Ayodhya, September 25, 2026: A special lecture titled "Pt. Deendayal Upadhyaya's Economic Thought" was organized at the Sant Kabir Auditorium of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University to mark the 110th birth anniversary of Pt. Deendayal Upadhyaya. Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh presided over the event. The program commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp and the garlanding of the statue of Goddess Saraswati and the portrait of Pt. Deendayal Upadhyaya.

The Vice-Chancellor stated that Pt. Deendayal Upadhyaya's economic thought is not merely theoretical but also practical and oriented towards public welfare. He emphasized that the yardstick for an economy's success should be the well-being of the person standing at the very last rung of the social ladder. He noted that the concepts of 'Integral Humanism' (Ekatma

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh and guests on the dais at a special lecture organized in the Sant Kabir Auditorium to mark the birth anniversary of Pt. Deendayal Upadhyaya.

Manavvad) and 'Antyodaya' (upliftment of the last person) have now become the foundation of India's development policies.

Deendayal-ji advocated for a balance between economic progress and human dignity. The chief guest, Prof. Vivek Kumar Nigam—former Head of the Department of Economics at Ewing Christian College, Prayagraj—shed light on the principles of Swadeshi (indigenous self-reliance), decentralization, and self-reliance. He remarked that Deendayal-ji presented a human-centric economic model based on Indian thought, distinct from both capitalism and communism. He added that the production of resources should be carried out in harmony with nature.

Program Convener Prof. Ashutosh Sinha welcomed the guests, while the proceedings were conducted by the Dean of Student Welfare, Prof. Neelam Pathak. Faculty members, research scholars, and students—including Prof. Vinod Kumar Srivastava, Prof. Shailendra Kumar, Dr. Awadh Narayan, Prof. Surendra Mishra, and Dr. Dinesh Kumar Singh—were present on the occasion.

Massive cleanliness drive held at Awadh University under the 'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan' Make cleanliness a way of life; take the message of service from the campus to society: Vice-Chancellor Ayodhya, September 17, 2026: A massive cleanliness drive was conducted at Awadh University under the 'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan' (Service Pledge Campaign) to mark the 76th birthday of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Presided over by Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh, teachers, officials, staff, and students participated in a collective voluntary labor effort (shramdaan) across the IT campus and the Luv-Kush hostel premises to spread the message of cleanliness.

Speaking on the occasion, the Vice-Chancellor emphasized that cleanliness should not be limited to a mere campaign but should become an integral part of daily conduct and lifestyle. A clean and healthy environment fosters positive energy, creative thinking, and a spirit of nation-building among students. He urged the youth to understand the importance of voluntary labor and service, and to carry the message of cleanliness from the campus to society at large, thereby strengthening the vision of a 'Clean India, Empowered India.'

During the drive, cleaning operations were carried out around the IT faculty buildings, along hostel pathways, and in the sports complex. The Vice-Chancellor also planted a sapling in the Miyawaki garden. He stressed the need to constitute special committees to ensure the maintenance of cleanliness standards in the hostels and academic buildings. At the conclusion of the event, participants pledged to adopt cleanliness in their daily lives and uphold the spirit of service.

Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, Dean Prof. S.S. Mishra, Dean of Student Welfare Prof.

Chaudhary, and Dr. Awadh Narayan were present on the occasion, alongside various Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh, along with teachers, officials, and students, contributing voluntary labor to a cleanliness drive under the 'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan' at the IT campus of Awadh University.

Neelam Pathak, Prof. Shailendra Kumar Verma, Heads of Departments, hostel wardens, and a Prof. Vinod Kumar Srivastava, Dr. Vinod Kumar large number of students.

Call to the youth to adopt an eco-friendly lifestyle Students administered a collective pledge against drug abuse

Ayodhya, September 7, 2026. A Conservation discussion on the theme "The Role of Youth in Environmental Conservation" at Awadh University.

was organized under the joint auspices of the Shiksha Sanskriti Utthan Nyas (Awadh Province) and Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University. The keynote speaker, Sanjay Swami—the National Coordinator for Environmental Education at the Nyas—called upon the youth to adopt an eco-friendly lifestyle. Prof. Himanshu Shekhar Singh, Director (IT), delivered the welcome address. Dr. Rakesh Kumar conducted the proceedings, and Prof. Shailendra Verma, Head of the Department, proposed the vote of thanks.

Ayodhya, September 11, 2026: An anti-drug pledge-taking ceremony was organized for BBA students in the Department of Business Management and Entrepreneurship. Prof. Himanshu Shekhar Singh urged the youth to stay away from substance abuse and channel their energy into education, innovation, and entrepreneurship. Prof. Shailendra Kumar Verma, the coordinator of the anti-drug campaign, administered a collective pledge to the students to remain drug-free throughout their lives.

Campus Bulletin

- Ayodhya, September 1, 2026: Awadh University emphasizes strengthening preparation for competitive exams through changes in question papers, a three-section format, and the use of standard question banks.
- Ayodhya, September 1, 2026: Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh inspected the campus and issued directives to improve facilities for free coaching, placements, and admissions.
- Ayodhya, September 2, 2026: Students from Jingle Bell School visited Sita Ram Sarovar and the Saryu Laboratory to learn about water conservation.
- Ayodhya, September 3, 2026: Students from Awadh University delivered an outstanding performance in the UGC NET-JRF examination, qualifying for JRF, NET, and PhD eligibility.
- Ayodhya, September 5, 2026: Progress on 'AI Manthan-2', de-addiction initiatives, digital degrees, and health campaigns was discussed during a review meeting at Raj Bhavan.
- Ayodhya, September 22, 2026: A two-day internal hackathon for Smart India Hackathon-2026 was held at Awadh University, where students presented innovative solutions.
- Ayodhya, September 26, 2026: Interviews for approximately 800 candidates across 36 subjects for the Awadh University PhD CET-2024 are scheduled to take place from October 7 to October 17.

Teachers should groom excellent and sensitive citizens for nation-building: Vice-Chancellor Retired professors honored on Teachers' Day; students presented cultural performances Ayodhya, September 5, 2026: A dignified ceremony was held at the Swami Vivekananda Auditorium of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University to mark Teachers' Day. Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh presided over the event. The program commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp and the garlanding of the portrait of Goddess Saraswati. The Vice-Chancellor also paid floral tributes at the statues of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Mahatma Gandhi, and Swami Vivekananda located on the campus.

On this occasion, retired professors—Prof. R.L. Singh, Prof. R.K. Tiwari, Prof. R.N. Rai, Prof. P.P. Singh, Prof. M.P. Singh, Prof. N.K. Tiwari, and Prof. K.K. Verma—were honored with Angavastrams (traditional stoles) and bouquets. The Vice-Chancellor remarked that 'experience' is the greatest university in the world. He emphasized that the role of teachers is not limited Coordinator of the Department of Social Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh honoring retired professors by presenting them with angavastrams and bouquets at the Teachers' Day celebration.

merely to completing the curriculum; rather, it is their responsibility to mold excellent and sensitive citizens for nation-building.

Students presented group songs, solo vocal performances, poetry recitations, and solo dances during the event. A song performed by Dr. Dinesh Kumar Singh, Work, captivated the audience. The program was anchored by Srajanika Mishra and Swastika. Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla, Prof. S.S. Mishra, and Prof. Himanshu Shekhar Singh, along with other faculty members and students, were present at the event.

Students learned the nuances of story and screenplay writing at a film training workshop

Ayodhya, September 8, 2026: A one-day film training workshop was organized at the Sant Kabir Auditorium of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University, under the joint aegis of the Department of Mass Communication and Journalism, the Department of Microbiology, and 'Awadh Chitra Sadhana', Lucknow. Arun, former Director of Bharatendu Natya Academy, shed light on the evolution of theatre and dialogue. Film director Gautam Siddharth shared insights into screenplay writing, taglines, loglines, and character ern technology in cinema. Journalist development. G.D. Mishra, former Technical Director at Doordarshan, spoke about the use of AI and mod-

Amit Shankar conducted the proceedings and proposed the vote of thanks.

Vice-Chancellor holds online meeting with Higher Education Minister regarding preparations for the 'Seva Sankalp' campaign 'Seva Sankalp' and anti-drug campaign to be held at Awadh University from September 17 to October 17

Ayodhya, September 8, 2026: A crucial online meeting involving all state universities of Uttar Pradesh was held at the Kautilya Administrative Building auditorium of Dr. Rammanohar Lohia Avadh University. The meeting was presided over by the State's Higher Education Minister, Yogendra Upadhyay. He directed that the 'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan' (Service Pledge Campaign) and the 'Nasha Mukti Abhiyan' (Drug-Free Campaign) be organized in higher education institutions from September 17 to October 17, accompanied by extensive public awareness initiatives.

As part of the campaign, the 'Aashirwad ka Diya' (Lamp of Blessings) program will be held at 7:00 PM on September 17.

Under this initiative, lamps will be lit at institutions, and the homes of beneficiary major state infrastructure projects, river ghats, temples, educational and medical families. Programs for the welfare of differently-abled individuals will also be conducted in Gram Panchayats and urban wards. Drawing competitions for classes 5 to 8 and speech competitions for classes 9 to 12 will be organized in schools and colleges. Exhibitions of selected entries will be held at the school, district, and state levels. Additionally, higher education institutions will host dialogues between youth and eminent personalities, as well as debate competitions on the theme 'Viksit Bharat-Viksit UP' (Developed India-Developed UP).

Vice-Chancellor Dr. Bijendra Singh, Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh, Finance Officer Purnendu Shukla, Prof. Himanshu Shekhar Singh, Prof. Neelam Pathak, Prof. Shailendra Kumar, and Prof. Surendra Mishra, along with other officials, were present at the meeting.